INTRODUCTION

This booklet contains important information on seasons, harvest limits, methods and means, and customary and traditional use determinations related to the taking of wildlife on Federal public lands for subsistence uses. These regulations are effective from July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2002. Managed subsistence activities include the taking of most species of land mammals, grouse and ptarmigan.

On July 1, 1990, the Federal Government assumed responsibility for the management of subsistence taking of wildlife on Federal public lands in Alaska. Federal public lands include lands managed by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service, Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Indian Affairs and the U.S.D.A. Forest Service, as well as non-navigable waters on these lands, and certain navigable and marine waters.

The Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act of 1980 requires that subsistence users have a priority over other users to take wildlife on Federal public lands where a recognized consistent and traditional pattern of use exists. When it is necessary to restrict the taking of wildlife on these lands, subsistence uses are given preference over other consumptive uses.

The public is responsible for complying with Federal subsistence regulations, as well as with additional regulatory changes and/or temporary and emergency closures or restrictions implemented by the Federal Subsistence Board during the regulatory year. The purpose of these regulations is to provide the opportunity for rural Alaska residents engaged in a subsistence way of life to continue to do so. To protect subsistence opportunities, it is essential that healthy wildlife populations be conserved.

FEDERAL SUBSISTENCE BOARD

A Federal Subsistence Board oversees the Federal Subsistence Management Program. The Alaska directors of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the National Park Service, the Bureau of Land Management, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and the U.S.D.A. Forest Service, are members of the Board. A representative of the Secretary of the Interior serves as chair. Federal Subsistence Regional Advisory Councils and State of Alaska representatives play an active role in Board deliberations.

FEDERAL SUBSISTENCE REGIONAL ADVISORY COUNCILS

Alaska has been divided into ten subsistence resource regions, each of which is represented by a Regional Council. These ten Regional Councils provide an opportunity for rural Alaskans to contribute in a meaningful way to the management of subsistence resources. Subsistence users have the opportunity to comment and offer input on subsistence issues at Regional Council meetings, which are held at least twice a year. The Regional Councils develop proposals to change Federal subsistence regulations and review proposals submitted by others.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOKLET

Are you a rural Alaska resident?

You must be a rural Alaska resident to harvest fish and wildlife under Federal subsistence regulations. All communities and areas in Alaska are rural with the following exceptions:

- Adak
- Municipality of Anchorage
- Fairbanks North Star Borough
- Juneau area (including Juneau, West Juneau and Douglas)
- Ketchikan area (including Ketchikan City, Clover Pass, North Tongass Highway, Ketchikan East, Mountain Point, Herring Cove, Saxman East, and parts of Pennock Island)
- Valdez
- Wasilla area (including Palmer, Wasilla, Sutton, Big Lake, Houston, and Bodenberg Butte)

You must have your primary, permanent residence in a rural area to qualify to hunt under Federal subsistence regulations. A seasonal residence does not qualify you as a rural resident.

Do you qualify for customary and traditional use?

The Federal Subsistence Board determines which communities or areas have customarily and traditionally taken a wildlife population. These customary and traditional use determinations are listed along with seasons and harvest limits in each management unit. There are additional National Park Service eligibility requirements that apply to National Park System areas (see page 8).

If the Board has not made a customary and traditional use determination for a wildlife population in the unit, then all rural residents of Alaska may use that population. If there is a positive determination for specific communities or areas, only those communities and areas have a Federal subsistence priority for that species in that unit.

No Federal subsistence priority means that the Federal Subsistence Board has determined that there is no customary and traditional subsistence use of that wildlife population. In these cases, there are no Federal subsistence seasons for that area. Hunting may be permitted under State of Alaska regulations.

The Fish and Wildlife Service and the local National Park Service superintendent maintain the list of individuals having customary and traditional use on National Parks and Monuments.

Will you be hunting or trapping on Federal public lands?

The regulations apply to Federal public lands only. Such lands include lands managed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service, Bureau of Land Management, and U.S.D.A Forest Service. The regulations do not apply to State or private lands. There are no Federal open seasons in units which have no Federal public lands.

Look at the map for the unit within which you wish to harvest wildlife to check the land status. For more detailed information, contact an office of the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service, or U.S.D.A. Forest Service in the area where you wish to harvest wildlife. A list of agency addresses and phone numbers can be found at the back of this booklet.

Is there an open season?

Check the season and harvest limit tables in this booklet to see if there is an open season within a management unit for the species that you wish to take.

What is the harvest limit?

Check the season and harvest limit tables in this booklet to see what the harvest limit is for the species that you wish to take within each management unit.

Other important information

Several other sections of this booklet contain important information. Read the Special Provisions for the management unit where you wish to take wildlife. This section lists unit-specific information, including areas where the subsistence take is restricted in some manner or where special opportunities occur.

Additional information can be found in the General Information and Subsistence Taking of Wildlife sections of this booklet.

For regulations relating to fisheries, see the Subsistence Management Regulations for the Harvest of Fish and Shellfish on Federal Public Lands and Waters in Alaska.

Do you have the necessary licenses, permits, harvest tickets and tags?

Rural residents must possess a resident license to hunt or trap under these regulations. All Alaskan residents between the ages of 16 and 60 must possess a State of Alaska license to hunt or trap in Alaska. Residents 60 years or older may obtain a free permanent identification card issued by the Alaska Department of Fish and Game. You must carry your license or identification card with you while taking wildlife for subsistence uses. Licenses can be purchased at many stores and other outlets in Alaska. Contact the local office of the Alaska Department of Fish and Game for more details.

Subsistence users, including designated hunters, must possess and comply with any permits, harvest tickets, or tags required by State or Federal regulations. In those instances where the Federal subsistence regulations require a Federal registration permit, subsistence users are not required to possess State permits, harvest tickets or tags. Licenses, permits, harvest tickets, tags or other documents must be shown, when requested, to State or Federal law enforcement agents. These permits, harvest tickets and tags are important tools used by wildlife managers to monitor and protect wildlife populations. Subsistence users are required to follow harvest reporting rules.

STATE OF ALASKA GENERAL HUNTING REGULATIONS

Often the State of Alaska administers a hunt for the same species in the same area as a Federal subsistence hunt. You may not add the harvest limit from Federal subsistence and State general hunt regulations together to increase your harvest limit.

If you are not a rural resident of Alaska, you may hunt on most Federal public lands, except national parks and monuments, under State of Alaska general hunting regulations. You may not hunt under the Federal subsistence regulations in this booklet. Contact the Alaska Department of Fish and Game for a State regulations booklet and more information. Regulation booklets are available at many sporting goods stores.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR NATIONAL PARK SERVICE LANDS

Subsistence use of resources in areas managed by the National Park Service is subject to additional rules and is restricted to local rural residents in national preserves, national monuments and parks open to subsistence. National Park Service regulations govern which communities or individual residents qualify as local rural residents for specific National Park Service areas. Glacier Bay National Park, Katmai National Park, Kenai Fjords National Park, Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park, "old" McKinley National Park, and Sitka National Historical Park are closed to subsistence. Users of National Park Service areas are responsible for complying with these regulations (codified in 36 CFR Part 13, Subparts A, B and C).

For more information about National Park Service regulations affecting subsistence contact:

National Park Service Alaska Support Office 2525 Gambell Street Anchorage, AK 99503 907/257-2649 FAX: 907/257-2517

LAND OWNERSHIP PATTERNS

It is your responsibility to know who owns the land where you plan to take wildlife. State and private lands occur within many Federal public land units. These regulations apply only to Federal public lands, and maps in this booklet provide only a general outline of Federal public lands and closed areas. For more detailed information, contact an office of the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service or U.S.D.A. Forest Service in the area where you wish to take wildlife. A list of agency addresses and phone numbers can be found at the end of this booklet.

SUBSISTENCE TAKING OF MARINE MAMMALS AND MIGRATORY BIRDS

These regulations do not apply to the subsistence taking of marine mammals or migratory birds. The taking of these species is regulated by the Marine Mammal Protection Act and the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, respectively. For information on marine mammals, contact the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Marine Mammal Management, 1011 E. Tudor Rd., Anchorage, Alaska 99503, or telephone (907) 786-3800 or (800) 362-5148. For information on migratory birds, contact the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Migratory Bird Management, 1011 E. Tudor Road, Anchorage, Alaska 99503, or telephone (907) 786-3443 or (800) 368-8890.

ALTERNATIVE PERMITTING SYSTEMS

Community harvest and designated hunter permitting and reporting systems are now in place in some communities. These systems are based on customary and traditional practices, including those associated with cultural and religious beliefs. The Federal Subsistence Board continues to work towards establishing other alternative community harvest and reporting systems where appropriate.

HOW CHANGES ARE MADE TO THESE REGULATIONS

Ideas and suggestions from subsistence users provide valuable insight on how to improve the Federal Subsistence Management Program. Subsistence users participate in the development and review of regulations by submitting proposals to change existing regulations, commenting on proposals, and testifying at public meetings.

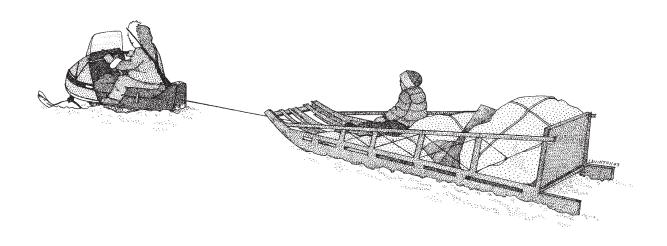

Federal Subsistence Regional Advisory Councils provide an opportunity for rural Alaskans to be involved in the development of Federal subsistence regulations. Subsistence users have the opportunity to comment and offer input on subsistence issues at Council meetings, which are held at least twice a year.

Subsistence users also provide valuable wildlife harvest information. Cooperative agreements have been developed between the U.S. Government and several Native organizations to manage some subsistence activities more effectively. These organizations work in an advisory capacity and provide technical information and biological data to help address subsistence issues. In this manner, traditional and local knowledge is considered in subsistence management decisions.

- Take or assist in the taking of ungulates, bear, wolf, wolverine, or other furbearers before 3:00 a.m. following the day in which airborne travel occurred (except for flights in regularly scheduled commercial aircraft). This restriction does not apply to subsistence taking of deer except within National Park Service areas or the setting of snares or traps, or the removal of furbearers from traps or snares;

- Take ungulates, bear, wolf, or wolverine with a bow, unless the bow is capable of casting a 7/8 inch wide broadhead-tipped arrow at least 175 yards horizontally, and the arrow and broadhead together weigh at least one ounce (437.5 grains);
- Use bait for taking ungulates, bear, wolf, or wolverine; except bait may be used to take wolves and wolverine with a trapping license, and bait may be used to take black bears with a hunting license as authorized in Unit-specific regulations. Baiting of black bears is subject to the following restrictions
 - No person may establish a black bear bait station unless he or she first registers the site with ADF&G;
 - A person using bait shall clearly mark the site with a sign reading BLACK BEAR BAIT STATION that also displays the person's hunting license number and ADF&G assigned number;

POSSESSION AND TRANSPORTATION OF WILDLIFE

- You may not take a species of wildlife in any Unit or portion of a Unit if your total take of that species already obtained anywhere in the State under Federal and State regulations equals or exceeds the harvest limit in that Unit.
- An animal taken under Federal or State regulations by any member of a community with an established community harvest limit for that species counts toward the community harvest limit for that species. Except for wildlife taken under permit for special purposes, including ceremonies and potlatches, an animal taken by an individual as part of a community harvest limit counts toward every community member's harvest limit for that species taken under Federal or State regulations.
- Individual harvest limits:
 - Harvest limits, including those related to ceremonial uses, specified in this booklet and in State of Alaska regulations may not be accumulated;
 - Wildlife taken by a designated hunter for another person counts toward the individual harvest limit of the person for whom the wildlife is taken.
- The harvest limit for a trapping season for a species and the harvest limit for a hunting season for the same species are separate and distinct. This means that a person who has taken a harvest limit for a particular species under a trapping season may take additional animals under the harvest limit specified for a hunting season or vice versa.
- A brown/grizzly bear taken in a Unit or portion of a Unit having a harvest limit of one brown/grizzly bear per year counts against a one brown/grizzly bear every four regulatory years harvest limit in other Units; you may not take more than one brown/grizzly bear in a regulatory year.
- A harvest limit applies to the number of animals that can be taken during a regulatory year; however, harvest limits for grouse, ptarmigan, and caribou (in some Units) are regulated by the number that may be taken per day. Harvest limits of grouse and ptarmigan are also regulated by the number that can be held in possession.
- Any person who gives or receives wildlife shall, upon a request of a Federal or State agent, furnish a signed statement describing the following: names and addresses of persons who gave and received wildlife, the time and place that the wildlife was taken, and the identification of species transferred. When a qualified subsistence user has designated another qualified subsistence user to take wildlife on his or her behalf, the permit shall be furnished in place of a signed statement.
- A rural Alaska resident who has been designated to take wildlife on behalf of another rural Alaska resident shall promptly deliver the wildlife to that person.
- No person may possess, transport, give, receive or barter wildlife that was taken in violation of Federal or State law.
- Evidence of sex and identity:
 - If the subsistence take of Dall sheep is restricted to a ram, no person may possess or transport a harvested sheep unless both horns accompany the animal.
 - If the subsistence taking of an ungulate, except sheep, is restricted to one sex in the local area, you may not possess or transport the carcass of an animal taken in that area unless sufficient portions of the external sex organs remain attached to indicate conclusively the sex of the animal, except in Units 11, 13, 19, 21 and 24 where you may possess either sufficient portions of the external sex organs (still attached to a portion of the carcass) or the head (with or without antlers attached; however, the antler stumps must remain attached), to indicate the sex of the harvested moose; however, this does not apply to the carcass of an ungulate that has been butchered and placed in storage or otherwise prepared for consumption upon arrival at the location where it is to be consumed.

- If a moose harvest limit includes an antler size or configuration restriction, you may not possess or transport the moose carcass or its parts unless both antlers accompany the carcass or its parts. A person possessing a set of antlers with less than the required number of brow tines on one antler shall leave the antlers naturally attached to the unbroken, uncut skull plate; however, this does not apply to a moose carcass or its parts that have been butchered and placed in storage or otherwise prepared for consumption after arrival at the place where it is to be stored or consumed.
- All edible meat from caribou and moose harvested in Units 9(B), 17 and 19(B) prior to October 1 must remain on the bones of the front quarters and hind quarters until the meat is removed from the field or is processed for human consumption.

Capturing Marked or Tagged Wildlife

If you take an animal that has been marked or tagged for scientific studies, you must, within a reasonable time, notify ADF&G or the agency identified on the collar or marker when and where the animal was taken. Any ear tag, collar, radio, tattoo or other identification must be retained with the hide until it is sealed, if sealing is required, and in all cases, any identification equipment must be returned to the ADF&G or to the agency identified on such equipment.

Sealing of Bear Skins and Skulls

- Sealing requirements for bear apply to brown bears taken in all Units, except as specified below, and black bears of all color phases taken in Units 1-7, 11-17, and 20.
- You may not possess or transport from Alaska the untanned skin or skull of a bear unless the skin and skull have been sealed by an authorized representative of ADF&G within 30 days of taking, in accordance with State regulations. However, the skin and skull of a brown bear taken under a registration permit in the Western Alaska Brown Bear Management Area, the Northwest Alaska Brown Bear Management Area, Unit 5, or Unit 9(B) in Lake Clark National Park and Preserve need not be sealed unless removed from these areas.
- A person who possesses a bear shall keep the skin and skull together until a representative of the ADF&G has removed a tooth from the skull and sealed both the skull and the skin. However, this provision shall not apply to brown bears taken within the Western Alaska Brown Bear Management Area, the Northwest Alaska Brown Bear Management Area, Unit 5, or Unit 9(B) in Lake Clark National Park and Preserve which are not removed from these areas.
- In areas where sealing is required by Federal regulations, no person may possess or transport the hide of a bear which does not have the penis sheath or vaginal orifice naturally attached to indicate conclusively the sex of the bear.
- If the skin or skull of a bear taken in the Western Alaska Brown Bear Management Area is removed from the area, it must first be sealed by an ADF&G representative in Bethel, Dillingham, or McGrath. At the time of sealing, the ADF&G representative shall remove and retain the skin of the skull and front claws of the bear.
- If the skin or skull of a bear taken in the Northwest Alaska Brown Bear Management Area is removed from the area or sent for commercial tanning within the management area, it must be first be sealed by an ADF&G representative in Barrow, Fairbanks, Galena, Kotzebue, or Nome. At the time of sealing, the ADF&G representative shall remove and retain the skin of the skull and front claws of the bear.
- If the skin or skull of a bear taken in Unit 5 is removed from the area, it must first be sealed by an ADF&G representative in Yakutat. At the time of sealing, the ADF&G representative shall remove and retain the skin of the skull and front claws of the bear.
- You may not falsify any information required on the sealing certificate or temporary sealing form provided by the ADF&G.

Sealing of Beaver, Lynx, Marten, Otter, Wolf, and Wolverine

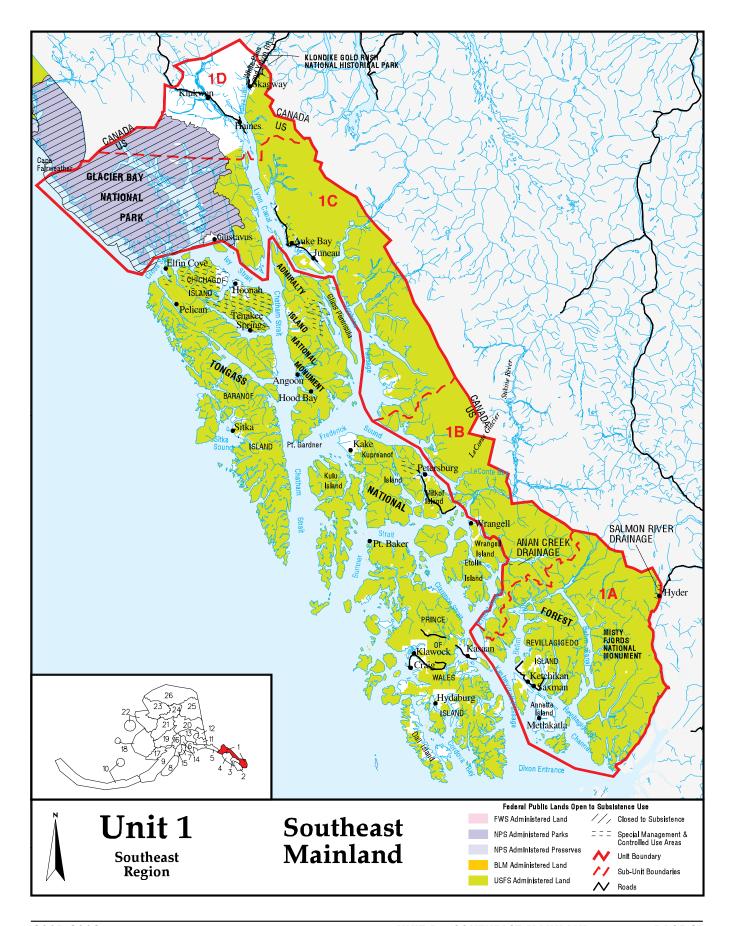

- No person may possess or transport from Alaska the untanned skin of a marten taken in Units 1-5, 7, 13(E), and 14-16 or the untanned skin of a beaver, lynx, otter, wolf, or wolverine, whether taken inside or outside the State, unless the skin has been sealed by an authorized representative of ADF&G.
- A person who takes a marten, lynx, beaver, otter, wolf or wolverine who is unable to present the skin in person must complete and sign a temporary sealing form and ensure that the completed temporary sealing form and skin are presented to an authorized representative of ADF&G for sealing as required above.
- Any wolf taken in Unit 2 must be sealed within 30 days of harvest.
- Wolves taken in Units 1-5 must have the radius and ulna of the left foreleg naturally attached to the hide until the hide is sealed.
- A person who takes a species listed in this section but who is unable to present the skin in person, must complete and sign a temporary sealing form and ensure that the completed temporary sealing form and skin are presented to an authorized representative of ADF&G for sealing.

UTILIZATION OF WILDLIFE

- You may not use wildlife as food for a dog or furbearer, or as bait, except for the following:
 - The hide, skin, viscera, head, or bones of wildlife;
 - The skinned carcass of a furbearer;
 - Squirrels, hares (rabbits), grouse and ptarmigan; however, the breastmeat of grouse and ptarmigan may not be used as animal food or bait;
 - Unclassified wildlife.
- A person taking wildlife for subsistence uses must salvage the following parts for human use:
 - The hide of a wolf, wolverine, coyote, fox, lynx, marten, mink, weasel or otter;
 - The hide and edible meat of a brown bear, except that the hide of brown bears taken in the Western and Northwest Alaska Brown Bear Management Areas and Units 5 and 9(B) need not be salvaged;
 - The hide and edible meat of a black bear;
 - The hide or meat of squirrels, hares (rabbits), marmots, beaver, muskrats, or unclassified wildlife.
- Failure to salvage edible meat of ungulates, bear, or grouse and ptarmigan is prohibited.
- Failure to salvage the edible meat may not be a violation if such failure is caused by circumstances beyond the control of a person, including theft of the harvested wildlife, unanticipated weather conditions, or unavoidable loss to another animal.

DEFENSE OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

Wildlife taken in defense of life or property is the property of the State and is not a subsistence use. A person taking wildlife in defense of life and property is required to immediately salvage the meat, or, in the case of a black bear, wolf, wolverine or coyote, the hide, and immediately surrender it to the State. All bear hides surrendered must include claws. In the case of brown or grizzly bear, the hide and skull must be salvaged and surrendered to the State immediately. The person taking the wildlife must notify the ADF&G of the taking immediately and must submit a written report of the circumstances of the taking of wildlife in defense of life or property to the ADF&G within fifteen days of the taking.

SPECIFIC UNITS AND REGULATIONS

Subsistence taking of unclassified wildlife, all squirrel species, and marmots is allowed in all units, without harvest limits, for the period of July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002. Subsistence taking of wildlife outside established unit seasons, or in excess of the established unit harvest limits, is prohibited unless otherwise modified by subsequent regulation. Taking of wildlife under State of Alaska regulations on public lands is permitted, except where non-Federally qualified subsistence users are explicitly restricted by the regulations in this booklet.
